Rationale:

- For the most part, this option is very similar to the 2013/14 school year.
- This option is aligned with the Victoria School District in the placement of the two week Spring Break in early March.
- One non-instructional day has been moved from the Spring to the Fall (Nov 7). This helps to balance the number of school days in each semester at the secondary level to a greater degree.

- This option clusters days where schools are not in session reducing interruption in key months.
- In 2014/15 the November 11 statutory holiday falls in mid-week. Attendance at school may be lower due to this factor. The addition of non-instructional days to this week may be more desirable than individual days throughout the year. A more comprehensive Professional Development program can be planned with teachers.
- Public feedback recommended that a spring break/closure occur back to back with the Easter weekend.
- The later Spring Break occurs towards the middle of second semester at secondary, a more optimal time for a semester break.
- With the Spring Break/Easter alignment, there are 4 closure days as opposed to 5. In this option the 5th closure day has been added in November, on the Monday before Remembrance Day. Without a 5th closure day, fewer savings are realized for the district.
